Ashley May, HIS has been providing hearing healthcare to individuals for over 11 years. She is a member of the Illinois and International Hearing Society. Furthermore, Ashley's work and accomplishments in the hearing industry have caught the attention from some of the elite in the hearing health community, which has caused her to be one of the most sought after young professionals in the field. However, her dream has always been to come back home to Taylorville and serve the community that she loves dearly. Ashley now resides in Taylorville with her husband and two children.

Her passion is to help those in the Taylorville region to hear better, but to also overcome the many other challenges associated with hearing loss.
